Five reasons to be thankful for Indiana's housing market \(even in 2022!\)

It's been a rollercoaster year for real estate – a red-hot 2021 gave way to a more balanced buying season, and sales continued to slide as the Federal Reserve hiked borrowing costs to stamp out inflation. Rising mortgage rates hit homebuyers hard, sellers looking to capitalize on competitive conditions saw demand slow, and Indiana REALTORS® had to help both sides navigate the new realities. But challenging times also prove the value of professional representation. Here are five more reasons to be thankful – and optimistic – about Indiana's housing market.

What is "Secondary" Membership?

Secondary membership describes REALTORS® who hold membership in an association other than their primary association. The only distinction between primary membership and secondary membership is that the dues collected in the member's primary association include the NAR portion of dues.
